5.1 Academy Council/ Principal Report - Curriculum and Instructional/Achievement Data Update

5.1.1 Academy Council/ELAC Update

The Academy Council has approved the implementation of a schoolwide grading scale. Additionally, staff members have received training on safety drill protocols by our safety manual. Efforts are underway to enhance recruitment strategies for attracting both staff and students to our school. The board has been advised to accept donations for the Hmong program from YPSA parents, with an estimated value of $1,812.00, which includes contributions to food, Hmong clothing, and instruments. The English Learner Advisory Committee (ELAC) will convene on January 18, 2023, to discuss reclassification details. It's important to note that YPSA will not participate in the ELPAC interim assessments, as this is not a mandatory requirement.

5.1.2 Teaching and Learning Update

5.1.2.1 Core

In the area of core teaching, TK-Teacher Ms. Ong Lo showcased how the Promethean panel board is utilized in the classroom to boost student engagement and enhance daily teaching and learning experiences. She also shared insights into the study trips conducted in October and November, highlighting the 6th grade Egyptian gallery tour and the Ruby Bridges Walk to School Day.

5.1.3.3 Instructional Program (Daily Schedule, YLT, BSM, Studytrip, Expectation)

5.1.3.4 Expanded Learning Opportunities Program

Currently, our enrollment stands at 470 scholars, with 57 spots still open. We are actively developing a recruitment plan for the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd grades. Additionally, there has been a 19% decrease in monthly attendance. To address this, we will be sending SART letters to the families of scholars with chronic absences. Our focus will be on collaborating closely with parents to explore various avenues of support for both the scholars and their families.

5.1.4 Facilities and Projects

The board received an update on various school projects, including developments in Kinder lines in the hallways, Line Markers in the play yard, Signage to be put up around campus, the Professional Development Room, Dance Studio, TKW, and the Multipurpose Room. Additionally, photographs showcasing the completed projects were presented for a comprehensive view of the progress made.

6. INFORMATIONAL ITEM- YPSA Expanded Learning Opportunities Program Plan

Principal Dr. Kal Phan, along with Mr. Dao Yang, the program coordinator and 6th-grade teacher, presented an update to the board on the YPSA Expanded Learning Opportunity Program. This update included details about compensation for training and planning activities conducted outside of regular working hours, from Monday to Friday. Additionally, they discussed the development of a robust structure for the program, the potential inclusion of additional programs, and strategies for increasing scholar enrollment.

7. BREAK 10 MINUTES - A ten-minute break was taken.

8. INFORMATIONAL ITEM- Monthly Administrative Reports
